

Mitchell Bloomer

Resource Teacher

Holocaust Memorial Resource & Education Center of Florida

I have been a teacher in the Orange County Public School system since 1985. I taught U.S. History and American Government at Lockhart Middle School from 1985-1995. I have been assigned to the Holocaust Center since the 1995-1996 school year. My position as Resource Teacher is a joint venture between OCPS and the Center. I conduct the Holocaust Center's educational programs. My primary responsibility is to assist teachers and schools in the implementation of the Florida mandate for Holocaust Education (F.S. 1003.42) through teacher training, direct student instruction and curriculum design.

Current and recent activities --

- Principal Instructor - Holocaust Memorial Center Teachers' Institute on Holocaust Studies; 1996-present
- Consultant and presenter for Holocaust education workshops and seminars for school districts throughout Central Florida; 1995-present
- Lecturer - International Teachers' Summer Institute: Teaching about the Holocaust - Krakow, Poland; 2006-2009
- Member - Florida Education Commissioner's Task Force on Holocaust Education, Co-Chair of the Task Force Educators' Committee